LIQUID OILS

Olympic has one of the widest ranges of liquid oils in the industry. From everyday vegetable oil to GM-free rapeseed oil to the highest quality extra virgin olive oil, we supply the best oil for a variety of needs. We can help source most oils used in food preparation.

With extensive market experience across the Olympic sales team we keep our customers up-to-date on the oil commodity markets. Our regular market reports provide advice on harvest periods, currency movements and the best time to place contracts.

BESPOKE SAUCES

Olympic's New Product Development team can create and match a wide variety of bespoke sauces. We produce condiments and dips for some of the leading household names in the British food industry.

Olympic can supply sauces in bulk containers for food manufacturers and caterers to use as an ingredient. We use highly durable folding containers with 1,000 litres of sauce in a bag-in-box.

PACKAGING

Olympic produces our own drums, jugs, and bottles on site and we supply packaging of varying sizes to the food and drink industry.

The most popular packaging lines in our PET range are the 3 litre, 5 litre, and 10 litre bottles, which are used in the soft drink sector. We are also certified to manufacture UN rated drums that meet rigorous safety standards.
